

DELANEY PARTNERS

COMMERCIAL LITIGATION

Delaney Partners' litigation practice team is led by senior practitioners John K F Delaney KC and Robert K Adams KC. Each bring leading counsel experience and know-how.

We provide sound representation in every type of commercial related dispute, whether before court of The Bahamas, in an arbitration or alternative dispute resolution process.

We offer a wide range litigation experience that includes, banking and financial services matters, enforcement of civil judgments, fraud and asset recovery, shareholder disputes, breach of director and fiduciary duties, investment fund disputes, telecommunications and e-commerce disputes, intellectual property disputes, and employment disputes.

Our extensive litigation experience includes:

- Counsel to a director in proceedings brought by liquidators for breach of fiduciary duties;
- Counsel to lender in pursuing a claim for repayment of multi-million dollar loan;
- Counsel to joint venture partner in pursuing a claim for breaches of joint-venture agreement;
- Counsel to company in pursuing a copyright infringement claim against former senior employee;
- Advising members of investment fund in relation to breach of fiduciary duty claim against fund administrator;
- Advising company on claims made against them for damages for breach of an exclusive licensing agreement;
- Counsel to building contractor defending multi-million dollar claim for breach of a building and construction contract in arbitration;
- Representing owners in multi-million dollar claim against building contractor for damages for deceit and defective work;
- Representing and advising banks, insurers and resort developers in all forms of employment disputes;
- Representing former directors in proceedings brought by liquidators of a major international computer company; and
- Examining former directors in proceedings brought by liquidators.